

People like myself pay for variety and clarity and should get to hear what we want without having to listen to public radios continual comercial after comercial. Why should the NAB be able to do what you are trying to limit xmradio from doing.